

NOGIES CREEK ROUTE

Difficulty: Easy | Route length: 4km | Portages: none

Less than 15 minutes from Bobcaygeon, Nogies Creek is an ideal destination for day trips, wild edible excursions, or a casual dip of the paddle. The wetland north of the put-in is rich with bird and beaver activity, with the Nogies Creek Waterway an area of special conservation concern owing to its unique natural features and geology along with a host of fisheries and wildlife.

A | Nogies Creek Waterway

Approx. 4km round-trip, starting at Bass Lake Road or the Nogies Creek Canoe and Kayak Launch

Ideal for:

- Experiencing the bird and wildlife activity
- Having a dip in the lake and playing on the shoreline
- Sustainable foraging for wild edible tea
- Immersing yourself in nature

Other areas of interest:

- Nogies Creek Canoe and Kayak Launch
- Bobcaygeon Trails